OUR WEDDING MARRIAGE PICTURE
TAKEN IN MT. CLEMENS.

Dear Mary,

Just a little remembrance for your anniversary.

Russ and I thought that because you and Cy were apart we would send you both something that you could enjoy now.

Wishing you ^{have} many happy, more anniversaries and we hope that you and Cy can be together soon.

Love,

Kathryn and Russ

and Pi Kap pin together will be strengthened in early September when Donna Claire Smith and Arthur D. Jackson, X-Aggie, are wedded in Washington D. C. Already thinking of the lily of the valley bouquet is Viva Mae Gammell who wears Keith Wilcox's Pi Kap pin next to the Chi O and horseshoe.

For time and eternity, some claim their marriage will last. Irene Beck, former student, and Lt. Daryl B. Simons, graduate of the college were married in the LDS temple August 21. Pi Kap Lindon B. Seamons and Dorothy Purser repeated vows in the Logan temple August 9; in the Salt Lake

Three Ogden Chi Omegas exchanged wedding vows and are living in far corners of the nation. "Another Bride....Another June...."

Fraternity pins, engagement rings, and wedding plans have been foremost in the minds of many Aggie lads and lasses; for lots of the old college gang the wedding bells rang, I do's were said, and in a shower of rice and old shoes the bride and groom dashed off for a short honeymoon.

It was a home wedding in a setting of white gladioli for Chi O Sherma Stanfill and Captain Russell Lund. They honeymooned in California; Sherma will be back in September to complete requirements for graduation. Alpha Chi Alice Smith and Harold Hegstead of Sugar City, Idaho, exchanged vows in the Logan temple in mid-summer.

Post chapels have been the scene of many weddings during the summer months. At the chapel in Gardner Field, California Ensign Margaret S. Williams and Aviation Cadet Irvin L. Petersen, X-Aggie, were wedded. Married July 22 in Douglas, Arizona, were Alpha Chi Dorothy Nielsen, and Lt. Vaughn Hailliday while in Clarksville, Tennessee, SAE Cyril Kearn and Alpha Chi Mary Walker repeated I do's.

The chain linking a Chi Omega and Pi Kap pin together will be strengthened in early September when Donna Claire Smith and Arthur D. Jackson, X-Aggie, are wedded in Washington D. C. Already thinking of the lily of the valley bouquet is Viva Mae Gammell who wears Keith Wilcox's Pi Kap pin next to the Chi O and horseshoe.

For time and eternity, some claim their marriage will last. Irene Beck, former student, and Lt. Daryl B. Simons, graduate of the college were married in the LDS temple August 21. Pi Kap Lindor B. Seamons and Dorothy Purser repeated vows in the Logan temple August 9; in the Salt Lake temple Joye Bambrough and Ensign Ray L. Boman, X-Aggie, were wedded. Yeoman Margaret Gnehm and Kenneth R. Krey, both former students, will say I do's in the Salt Lake temple.

Wearing the traditional white satin bridal gown, Alpha Chi Mary Katherine Naisbitt wedded Allen P. Williams in the Los Angeles Whilshire ward. Frances Lee Maughan, X-Aggie, and Lt. William B. Cooley of Erie, Pennsylvania, repeated vows in Ogden in mid-August.

A veteran of the South Pacific fighting, Fire Controlman 2/c Vard Orrock, X-Aggie, and Dorothy Meyer were wedded August 7; Easton Sampson, senior class prexy, and Carol Elaine Godfrey exchanged vows recently.

Kappa Delta Avon DeVree and Carl N. White planned an Ogden marriage and honeymoon while Seaman 2/c White was on leave from Great Lakes, Ill. Making their home in San Diego, California, after their marriage are Kaydee Louise Taylor and William Curtis Jolley, former students. Wedding bells pealed for Belton Hancey, X-Aggie, and Pat Ralphs of Long Beach, California, who were married recently.

Three Ogden Chi Omegas wear the wedding band now and are living in far corners of the nation. Lt. and Mrs. Dennis Hall (the former Marge Farr, are in Washington, Lt. and Mrs. Richard Call (the former Lorene Donaldson) are in Texas, and Captain and Mrs. Norman Carver (the former LuJean Hinchcliff) are on the east coast.

Mrs. is the name now of X-Aggie Colleen Edwards who married Francis R. Martin of Watervliet, New York in late July. Alpha Chi Helen Webb was wedded to Bernard D. Kingehy in late August as were Lamont Johns and Betty Savage.

In rites solemnized at the home of the groom's parents Helen Fern Price became the bride of Robert Wooppon Nicholes; in Manti LDS temple rites solemnized the marriage of Melba Bagely, '38, and Ronald Jensen, former student. Lynn Hadfield and Afton Fisher were united in marriage in Reno, Nevada, while across the nation in Westerly, R. I. Keith Edward Clayson, 'ex-aggie, and Guelda Choules were married.

Lt. George B. Bradshaw '35 and Deora Seagmiller following their recent marriage are making their home in Modesto, California. Now at home in Provo are Ray S. Whitney and his bride, the former Lora Hilton. The marriage ceremony of Ensign Loy W. Waits '41 and Carma Glauser was recently performed in the Logan LDS temple.

Across the ocean, in jolly old England Lt. George H. Searle and Gwynneth Jopling recited vows in St. Giles' church. A war bride was Virginia Harris, '44, who married Lt. Niel George Christian at the Presbyterian church in Logan.

Elden A. Tolman, '40, and A) Rae Wilson, '39, were married the Logan LDS temple June Kaydee Norma Shotwell, exchanged wedding vows with James Normington II, in a candlelight double ring ceremony in Tucson, Arizona.

Chi O Irene Jensen nate a war-time romance she is married in early in South Dakota. An for her beau to return seas is Barbara A.

Omega, who has engagement to Sigma Chi Joyce Seamons and Mrs. now; lcr, ex-Aggie of Ogden.
